

VACATION TERM REQUEST

To be eligible for a vacation term you need to have three terms of consecutive full time enrollment.

Degree Seeking Students: The summer is an automatic vacation term if you intend to return to your studies in the following fall term. If you wish to take a term off outside of summer, please fill in the information below.

INTO OSU Students: You must fill out this request for any term you wish to take off. If you are changing from one degree level to another you should also fill out this request if you wish to take a break in-between terms.

Graduate Students: You must also get approval from the Graduate School to take a vacation term through the Leave of Absence process.

Other restrictions may apply. Please review the Registration Requirements page on our website for more details about vacation term and see an International Advisor if you need further assistance.
