

L'Environnement French Style

Oregon State University Global Opportunities – OSU GO!

University Plaza, Suite 290

oregonstate.edu/international

L'Environnement French Style

- 4-week summer faculty-led study abroad program
- Based in Poitiers, France and offered in partnership with the Université de Poitiers

- As with all OSU-sponsored study programs:
 - Earn OSU resident credit
 - Use financial aid & scholarships
 - Designed to integrate into your OSU curriculum

Program Summary

- Program comprised of two courses plus French language & culture
 - Human-Environment Interactions on the Plateau Poitevin (3 credits)
 - Ecology (3 credits)
- Choose from two housing options
 - University residence hall
 - Host family
- Program excursions to the Loire Valley, Atlantic Coast and the Marais Poitevin
- Local events such as outdoor concert series, July 14th festivities

Courses

- Human-Environment Interactions on the Plateau Poitevin - taught by Prof. Larry Becker
- Ecology- taught by Université de Poitiers faculty
- French language & culture engagement – practical French language for use in daily life

Accommodation

- Host family
 - Families who have typically housed semester or yearlong Oregon students studying in Poitiers
 - Independent room, may share a bathroom
 - All meals included with exception of lunch on weekends.
- Residence Hall
 - Single room with bathroom
 - Shared kitchen facilities
 - Sufficient, newly renovated building

Funding an Experience Abroad

Most forms of financial aid can be used on OSU-approved experiences abroad

Scholarships may be available (Gilman for Pell-eligible students, departmental scholarships)

Summer Financial Aid:

- Aid would be spread over 4 terms, rather than 3
- If enrolled for half time (6 credits), half of the term's financial aid would be released.

Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship

Goal:

National scholarship to diversify the kinds of students who study abroad and the countries and regions where they go.

Eligibility

- U.S. Citizen
- Undergraduate Student
- Must be receiving a Federal Pell Grant
- Education Abroad must be approved for credit at home school
- Must be abroad for a minimum of 4 weeks
- Program can not be on the State Department's travel warning list or Cuba.

Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship

To Apply:

- Complete the online application
- Provide transcripts
- Two essays:
 - Statement of Purpose
 - Description of project to promote education abroad

Deadlines:

Summer, fall and academic year abroad: March 1, 2016

Winter/spring 2017: early October 2016

Contact:

LeAnn Adam, leann.adam@oregonstate.edu

OSU Advisor for Prestigious Scholarships

- More information at: topscholars.oregonstate.edu
- Make an individual appointment to discuss application and get feedback on your essays
- Drop in hours 9-12 and 1-4 on Monday, February 29th

Follow on Facebook:

<https://www.facebook.com/OSUTopScholars/>

Financial Considerations

Estimated Program Costs:

Participant fee:	$2,232
Summer Session tuition:	$1,158
Passport/insurance:	$ 205
Additional Meals:	$ 100
Local transportation/incidentals:	$ 265
Airfare estimate:	$1,400
Overall Cost Estimate:	$5,360

What's next? Take action!

1. More information on the OSU GO website:
<http://international.oregonstate.edu/osugo/faculty-led-program-offerings> along with application information. Application deadline: April 15th
2. Let us know if you have any additional questions.
Dr. Larry Becker:
beckerla@science.oregonstate.edu
Laura Hampton: laura.hampton@oregonstate.edu
3. Become a fan of OSU GO on Facebook! Check us out at facebook.com/osuabroad.
4. Meet with an International Ambassador, 10am-5pm, M-F at University Plaza Suite 290.
5. Discuss your plans with your academic advisor.

