Subject: OSU OIS Application Fee for J-1 Applicants

Dear J-1 Exchange Visitor Applicant:

J-1 Exchange Visitor Applications cannot be processed by the Office of International Services (OIS) at Oregon State University (OSU) without payment of the OIS J-1 Application Fee. The application indicated that you, the scholar, would pay the application fee.

OIS can accept payment of the $325 processing fee in the following ways:

- 1) Checks -- made payable to "Oregon State University – OIS"
- 2) Money Orders -- made payable to "Oregon State University – OIS"

Credit card payments, Western Union money transfers, and international money transfers cannot be accepted by OIS. Contact your sponsoring department to see if they will accept this option and pay the fee on your behalf.

Please mail your payment to the following address. Please clearly indicate your name, and that it is for your "J-1 Scholar Application".

Department Index:

In some cases, if the scholar has difficulties securing a check or money order (depending on banking system in home country), the sponsoring department has consented to pay the OIS processing fee (via a departmental index or personal check from the sponsoring professor) for the visitor with the understanding that the visitor will reimburse the department upon arrival. Please contact your sponsoring department for more information.

Please let me know if you have any questions,
