The purpose of this list is to concentrate options for students applying to the CIEE Bonaire program, so they may better find scholarships that they are eligible for that can be applied to tuition costs for the CIEE Bonaire program.

Beneath the Sea Scholarship:
http://www.beneaththesea.org/scholarships/44619

Eligibility: This scholarship has an emphasis on students that are pursuing a degree or career that involves scuba diving. All students that are including scuba diving in their career or education are eligible to apply.

Award amount: Multiple awards for up to $1500 are granted

Gilman Scholarship:
http://www.iie.org/programs/gilman-scholarship-program

Eligibility: The Gilman scholarship is awarded to students who receive a Pell grant and are studying abroad.

Award amount: Scholarships of up to $5,000 are awarded, based on student need and length of abroad program. This scholarship also requires a follow-up project upon returning from studying abroad.

CIEE Scholarship:

Eligibility: All students participating in CIEE study abroad programs. Those who receive the award demonstrate financial need and academic excellence. More information can be found under specific grant and scholarship headers on the CIEE Financial Page.

Award amount: varies based on scholarship and need

College of Science Scholarships:
http://www.science.oregonstate.edu/node/222

Eligibility: This is a list of scholarships provided through the OSU College of science.

Award amount: varies

Zonta Rusnak Scholarship:

Eligibility: Female OSU or LBCC students focusing on a career in Science, Technology, Engineering or Math. Student must be at least a second year undergraduate student and have at least a C+ average in her major or prerequisite course work. Her educational studies/goals should match her stated commitment and her transcript should show a pattern of completing attempted coursework. Student must be interested in improving the lives of others or serving as a role model for other women. Student must be residing in Oregon and taking a minimum of 9 credits at OSU or LBCC.

Award amount: $2700 for the year, divided as $900 per quarter, and is applied to recipient’s account at either LBCC or OSU.
MASNA Scholarship:
http://www.masna.org/AboutMASNA/MASNAScholarship/tabid/83/Default.aspx

Eligibility: Student must be a current/entering undergraduate or graduate student at an accredited college or university. Student must have declared major/focus or have intent to declare a major/focus in of the marine science disciplines. Ideal candidate is additionally active in the marine aquarium hobby, and will have a GPA above 2.5

Award amount: $4,000 (one available for undergraduates, one available for graduates)

Udall Scholarship:

Eligibility: Students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to the environment including policy, engineering, science, education, urban planning and renewal, business, health, justice, economics, and related fields. Other students eligible are Native American and Alaska Native students who have demonstrated commitment to careers in tribal public policy and Native health care.

Award amount: Up to $5,000 for tuition, room and board.

Special requirement: Selected students are required to attend the four-day Udall Scholars Orientation in Tucson, Arizona. This is typically at the beginning of August. The date is updated each year as scholarships become available.

NOAA’s Hollings Scholarship:
http://www.oesd.noaa.gov/scholarships/hollings.html#page=timeline

Eligibility: Must be a US citizen, currently enrolled or accepted as a full time 2nd year student in a 4 year academic program or as a full-time 3rd year student in a five-year undergraduate program at an accredited college or university within the United States or US territories. Student must maintain a 3.0 GPA in all courses each semester/quarter. Student must have and maintain a declared major in a discipline including, but not limited to, oceanic, environmental, biological, and atmospheric sciences, mathematics, engineering, remote sensing technology, physical and social sciences including geography, physics, hydrology, geomatics, or teacher education that support NOAA’s programs missions. This is a 2-year program. Additional information is found on the program description page.

Award amount: A maximum of $8,000 for academic assistance for a 9-month academic year, and a 10-week, full time internship position ($650/week) during the summer at a NOAA facility. And, if reappointed, student receives academic assistance up to $8,000 for a full-time study during a second 9-month academic year.

Dolores E. Fisher Award:
http://www.melfisher.org/deofisheraward.htm
Eligibility: Must be a young woman, aged 35 years or younger, who demonstrates strong, refined ocean-related career goals. Additionally, the recipient of the award will be invited to spend behind-the-scenes time at the Mel Fisher Maritime Museum

Award amount: $1,000

Atlas Shrugged Essay Contest:

Eligibility: All 12th graders, College Undergraduates, and Graduate Students

Award Amount: 1st place winner receives $10,000; 3 second place winners receive $2,000; 5 third prize winners receive $1,000; 25 finalists receive $100; 50 semifinalists receive $50

Women Divers Hall of Fame Scholarships and Training Grants:
http://www.wdhof.org/scholarships/scholarships.shtml

Eligibility: This nonprofit organization provides financial and educational support to individuals of all ages, particularly those who are preparing professional careers that involve diving. Scholarships are offered in conservation, marine biology, underwater archaeology, and journalism, graphic arts, or photography. Students are allowed to apply to one scholarship per year that the organization provides.

Award Amount: Multiple scholarships specifying in different areas, ranging from $500-$2,000